

Where do I go from here

Your doctor or mental health professional can recommend resources in your community. In addition to professional resources, you may find non-professional support helpful.

Understanding Psychiatric Medications

The Centre for Addiction and Mental Health in Ontario offers guides for four different kinds of psychiatric medications: antidepressants, antipsychotics, mood stabilizers and benzodiazepines. You can find these guides online at www.camh.net.

Canadian Network for Mood and Anxiety Treatments

Visit <http://www.canmat.org/> for information on treatments for anxiety disorders and mood disorders. You can also find guidelines on depression, which provide information on evidence-based treatments for depression.

Reclaiming Your Power During Medication Appointments

Visit www.power2u.org/articles/selfhelp/reclaim.html for the article, “Reclaiming Your Power During Medication Appointments” from the National Empowerment Center. It describes how to think about medication and work with health professionals as you work towards your treatment goals.

If you’re having a hard time coping with your diagnosis, you may want to consider outside help.

For more information regarding resources and educational and support groups available in Quebec, please check the resources below:

Your Local Crisis Line

Crisis lines aren’t only for people in crisis. You can call for information on local services or if you just need someone to talk to. If you are in distress, call 1 866 APPELLE or 1-866-277-3553, 24 hours a day to connect to a Quebec Crisis Line, with no waiting or busy signal. Staff members responding to the crisis lines at this number have received advanced training in mental health issues and services.

Suicide Prevention Resources

Ami Quebec

Visit <https://amiquebec.org> or call (514) 486-1448 for information and resources regarding mental health or any kind of mental health disorders.

Support groups

Support groups are an important way to find support and information. They may help you feel less alone and more connected, even if you haven't told many others about your diagnosis. For information about the resources and support groups regarding depression visit <https://amiquebec.org>.

The Ordre des psychologues du Québec

To find a psychologist or a psychotherapist who speak different languages, visit the Ordre des psychologues du Québec  website.

ACCÉSSS

ACCÉSSS (<https://accesss.net/>) is a provincial group of community organizations whose goal is to represent the interests of ethnocultural communities in health and social services decision-making bodies. It is a non-profit organization (NPO). ACCÉSSS is a meeting place for the community, the health network and the university community. Due to the management philosophy of ACCÉSSS which is to work in consultation with its various partners, as well as the nature of the files, ACCÉSSS has become more involved in the consultation networks.
